Authority and Responsibility for Stanford’s Animal Care and Use Program

1The “Institutional Official” responsible for Stanford’s Program of Animal Care and Use has been designated, in writing, by the President of the University with the authority to appoint IACUC members. The dotted line represents direct access to the IO through standing or ad hoc meetings where the AV and IACUC Chair clearly and regularly communicate the program needs.